“A Good Investment for the Future” Trademark Registration Completed

Nissay Asset Management Corporation (hereinafter "NAM", President and Chief Executive Officer: Hiroshi Ozeki) is pleased to announce that it has applied to the Japan Patent Office for the trademark "A Good Investment for the Future," which is the company's slogan for promoting sustainability management, as well as its logo, and that the registration has been granted.

In this slogan, "Good Investment" has multiple meanings: "investment that is good for the environment and society", "investment with good performance", and "investment that is good for employees", and it expresses our commitment to realize "good investment" that goes beyond the mere pursuit of economic returns. "For the Future" also has various meanings, including "the future of our customers", "the future of the earth and the next generation", and "our own future." We have a responsibility toward various futures. We will continue to play a role in realizing a sustainable society.
